

Common Hazardous Waste violations

1. Failure to make hazardous waste determinations
2. Failure to update notification information.
3. Failure to close container holding hazardous waste (SQG and LQG)
4. Failure to label hazardous waste containers (Satellite and Accumulation)
5. Failure to date hazardous waste accumulation containers
6. Failure to place emergency information next to the phone (SQG)
7. Failure to update contingency plan (LQG)
8. Failure to conduct and/or document hazardous waste training (LQG)
9. Storage of hazardous waste over 90 or 180 days (LQG / SQG)
10. Failure to label a container holding 25 gallons or more of used oil with the words "used oil"
11. Failure to make arrangements with local authorities (SQG and LQG).
12. Failure to properly label universal waste containers and keep them closed (as necessary)
13. Failure to conduct weekly inspections
14. Failure to properly manifest, fill out land disposal restriction form, or receive manifest back within 35 days or submit exception report within 45 days (60 days for SQG).